Hear and help. Guide us ever by Thy Spirit. We ask in Jesus Christ's name. Amen.

F. W. COOK,

By his honor the lieutenant governor,

FRANK G. ALLEN,
Acting Governor.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senators elect to the present Congress will present themselves at the Vice President's desk to take the oath of office.

Mr. ROBINSON, of Indiana, escorted by Mr. CURTIS; Mr. STEWART, of Iowa, escorted by Mr. STECK; Mr. HAWES, of Missouri, escorted by Mr. ROBINSON of Arkansas; Mr. GOULD, of Maine, escorted by Mr. HALE; and Mr. WALSH of Massachusetts, escorted by Mr. GILLETT, advanced to the Vice President's desk.

Mr. WALSH. Mr. President, it is not unknown, I assume, to most of the Members of the Senate that charges of a most serious character have been preferred against the Senator elect from the State of Maine [Mr. GOULD] by one of the judges of the Province of New Brunswick. It has occurred to me that it would not be consistent with respect due from us to the body of which we are Members to pass unnoticed charges of so grave a character from so eminent a source. I, accordingly, offer the following resolution, and ask that it may be read from the desk.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The resolution will be read.

The reading clerk read the resolution (S. Res. 278), as follows:

Whereas it is reported by the press that in certain proceedings pending before one of the courts of the Province of New Brunswick, the judge thereof, in a formal opinion found and charged that a contract made the basis of such proceedings was tainted with bribery perpetrated by or participated in by Arthur R. Gould, certified to have been elected a Senator from the State of Maine, the said judge being reputed to have expressed himself in such opinion as follows, to wit:

"It transpired that for the purpose of advancing his own interest, Mr. Gould paid to the Hon. Mr. Flemming, then acting for the Province, this large sum of money, most of it to him personally, the balance to his order. The circumstances under which this money was paid are not clear. I have simply Mr. Gould's evidence, as to the cause which led him to offer the bribe.

"Mr. Gould represents the payment as practically forced from him. I am not so sure that this is so. I think he was only too ready to purchase an advantage by making a payment of such a nature. Indeed, I can see no other reason why he should have paid it. It seems to me impossible to conclude that any man is going to part with $100,000 unless he expects to gain very material advantage thereby.

"Added to this, the fact that the premier was looking after this railway business himself, confirms me in my belief that Mr. Gould deliberately set out by the payment of this money to make his position secure and to evade the consequences of future defaults, should any be made by him, by placing the most trusted public man in the Province under his control in the way above indicated. Unfortunately he succeeded in that attempt, and the law has no sympathy at all for one who puts himself in such a position, and does not hesitate to enforce the rules and doctrines applicable to such a case.

"That claimants have no rights which should be recognized or enforced in any court or before any arbitrator causes the contract to be void by reason of the act of bribery committed by Mr. Arthur R. Gould during the negotiations for the building of the road between the Province and railway company." Be it

Resolved, That in that absence of official information concerning the charge thus made, the qualifying oath be administered to the Member elect and that the Committee on Privileges and Elections be, and it hereby is, directed to inquire into the truth of the facts so reported and recited and to report the same at the earliest convenient date to the Senate, with such recommendations touching action by it in the premises as may seem to them warranted.

Mr. WALSH. I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution.

Mr. MOSES. I ask that the resolution may go over under the rule.

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order, if the Senator will yield for that purpose. I make the point of order that the resolution is not in order at this time, because the proceeding of swearing in the newly elected Senators must continue until disposed of, and then, after that shall have been disposed of, the resolution of the Senator from Montana may be taken up or referred to the appropriate committee.

Mr. WALSH. That course would be quite correct, Mr. President, were it not for the fact that it is the proceeding contemplated by the resolution.

Mr. MOSES. In any event, Mr. President, whether or not the point of order made by the Senator from Kansas shall be sustained, I ask that the resolution may go over under the rule.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The resolution will go over under the rule.

The oath prescribed by law was administered by the Vice President to Mr. ROBINSON of Indiana, Mr. STEWART, Mr. HAWES, Mr. GOULD, and Mr. WALSH of Massachusetts, and they took their seats in the Senate:

Resolved, That the Secretary inform the House of Representatives that a quorum of the Senate is assembled and that the Senate is ready to proceed to business.

NOTIFICATION TO THE PRESIDENT

Mr. CURTIS submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 280), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two Senators be appointed to join such committee as may be appointed by the House of Representatives to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that a quorum of each House is assembled and that the Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

The VICE PRESIDENT appointed Mr. CURTIS and Mr. ROBINSON of Arkansas as the committee on the part of the Senate.

HOOR OF DAILY MEETING

Mr. CURTIS submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 281) which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the hour of daily meeting of the Senate be 12 o'clock meridian until otherwise ordered.

DEATHS OF SENATOR CUMMINS AND SENATOR FERNALD

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. President, on the 10th of November last notice was given the Senate of the deaths of the late Senator CUMMINS, of Iowa, and Senator FERNALD, of Maine. I move that as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased Senators the Senate do now adjourn.

Mr. BRUCE. I trust the Senator will not press the motion for a moment. I should like to introduce two bills.

Mr. CURTIS. Under the law and general parliamentary practice bills can not be introduced until we hear from the other House. I hope the Senator will not seek to introduce any bills to-day. We should have to take a recess in order that that might be done.

Mr. BRUCE. I must bow to the law.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The question is on agreeing to the motion of the Senator from Kansas.

The motion was unanimously agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 25 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, Tuesday, December 7, 1926, at 12 o'clock meridian.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 6, 1926

This day in compliance with the provisions of the Constitution the Members of the House of Representatives of the Sixty-ninth Congress assembled in their Hall, and at 12 o'clock noon were called to order by the Speaker, NICHOLAS LONGWORTH.

The Chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, wonderful in mercy, infinite in love, and marvelous in good works, with our waiting hearts we tarry at the threshold of this Congress with the deepest reverence. We look toward Thee as we watch the morning with its endless stretch and its boundless space. Compassed as we are with human limitations and earthly infirmities, we ask for wisdom to direct us in that which is wise and for strength to restrain us in that which is unwise. Clear away all misconception of duty and enrich us with knowledge and with wholesome utterance. O Spirit divine, keep us joined patiently and obediently to all our tasks. Like a touch from God, may this silent moment sink into our breasts and send us forth through the coming days and weeks to labor in sympathy for the great institutions which have blessed us and preserved us as a liberty-loving people. Continue, O Lord, to arm us with honor, truth, and virtue that our fellow citizens throughout the length and breadth of the Republic may be inspired to rededicate themselves to the land they love to call their home. Bless and direct our Speaker, the Members of this Chamber, the officers, and the employees. May the grace and the beauty of Thy presence shine like an angel's face upon all our hearthstones. Abide with our President and his fireside. At the last, our heavenly Father, may the star of promise rise over our waiting brows and light the way to eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
